CONGRESSIONAL.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—The Speaker said he had been requested to present to the House, and as the matter appeared to be national in its character, he did present, an invitation from the Executive Committee of the National American Sharpshooters, to attend a public demonstration and festival which is to take place at Jones' Woods, New York, from June 27th to July 6th.

Judd moved that the invitation would be accepted, and moved that the House be represented at the opening ceremonies by a committee of five members.

Stevens, of Pennsylvania, said he hoped it was not a very bad practice to teach people to shoot sharp.

The motion was then agreed to.

The Speaker appointed the following members to represent the House: Messrs. Judd, Garfield, Paine, Chandler and Orth.

Price introduced a bill to relieve T. Mackey, of South Carolina, from his political disabilities. Referred to the Committee on Reconstruction.

Bingham, from the Reconstruction Committee, reported back the Senate amendments to the act to admit certain States to representation in Congress, with a recommendation that the amendments be concurred in.

Bingham said he desired a speedy decision of the House on the bill, and he would therefore move the previous question, but he would first ask his colleague, Mr. Spalding, whether he desired to offer his amendment now?

Spalding—"Yes, I move to strike out Alabama from the bill."

The following is the bill in full:

An act to admit the States of North Carolina, South Carolina, Louisiana, Georgia, Alabama and Florida to representation in Congress.

WHEREAS, The people of North Carolina, South Carolina, Louisiana, Georgia, Alabama and Florida have, in pursuance of the provisions of an act entitled "an act for the more efficient government of the rebel States," passed March 22, 1867, and the acts supplemental thereto, framed Constitutions of a State government, which are Republican in form, and have adopted said Constitutions by large majorities of the votes cast at the elections held for the ratification of the same; therefore

Be it enacted, That each of the States of North Carolina, South Carolina, Louisiana, Georgia, Alabama and Florida shall be entitled and admitted to representation in Congress as a State of the Union when the Legislatures of such States shall have duly ratified the amendment to the Constitution of the United States, proposed by the 39th Congress, and known as "Article 14," upon the following fundamental conditions:

1. That the Constitutions of neither of said States shall ever be so amended or changed as to deprive any citizen or class of citizens of the United States of the right to vote in said States, who are entitled to vote by the Constitutions thereof, hereby recognized, except as a punishment for such crimes as are now felonies at law, whereof they shall be duly convicted under laws equally applicable to all the inhabitants of said States, provided any alteration of said Constitutions, prospective in effect, may be made, with regard to the time and place of residence of voters; and the State of Georgia shall only be entitled and admitted to representation upon these further fundamental conditions, that the first and third sub-divisions of section seventeen of the fifth article of the Constitution of said State, except the proviso to the first sub-division, shall be null and void; and that the General Assembly of said State, by a solemn public act, shall declare the assent of the State to the foregoing fundamental conditions.

2. That if the day fixed for the first meeting of the Legislatures of either of said States by the Constitution, or an ordinance thereof shall have passed, or so nearly arrived before the passage of this act that there shall not be time for the Legislature to assemble at the period fixed, such Legislature shall convene at the end of twenty days from the time this act shall take effect, unless the Governor elect shall sooner convene the same.

3. That the first section of this act shall take effect as to each State, except Georgia, when such State shall, by its Legislature, duly ratify article 14 of the amendment to the Constitution of the United States, proposed by the Thirty-ninth Congress, and as to the State of Georgia, when it shall, in addition, give the assent of said State to the fundamental conditions herein before imposed upon the same, and thereupon the officers of each State, duly elected and qualified under the Constitutions thereof, shall be inaugurated without delay, but no person prohibited from holding office under the United States, or any State, by the section of the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States, known as article 14, shall be deemed eligible to office in either of said States, unless relieved from his disabilities as provided in said amendment; and it is hereby made the duty of the President, within ten days after receiving official information of the ratification of said amendments by the Legislature of either of said States, to issue a proclamation announcing that fact.

Spalding said in view of the fact that both branches of Congress had voted in favor of admitting Alabama, he withdrew his amendment.

After some debate the motion to exclude Florida from the "omnibus bill" was defeated, yeas 45, nays 99; and the Senate's amendments concurred in.

The bill now goes to the President for his signature.

The vote on its passage was yeas, 111; nays, 28.

By the unanimous consent of the House, and at the suggestion of the Speaker, the National Sharpshooting Committee was increased from five to seven, and Messrs. Robertson and Knott added to it.

Schenck, at the suggestion of Robertson, reported from the Ways and Means Committee a joint resolution remitting the duties on certain articles contributed to the National Association of Sharpshooters to an amount not exceeding $10,000, which was passed.

SENATE.

Morton, from the Committee on Foreign Affairs, reported a joint resolution requesting the President to intercede with the Queen of Great Britain to secure the speedy discharge of Rev. John McMahon, convicted of treason and felony, and now confined at Kingston, C. W., which was passed.

Harlan, from the Committee on the District of Columbia, reported with an amendment the bill to regulate the contested election in Washington, and urged its immediate consideration.

Hendricks objected and the bill went over.

Edmonds introduced a bill in addition to the act to regulate the time and manner of holding elections for Senators in Congress.

Hendricks, from the Committee on Public Lands, reported a bill to aid in the construction of a ship canal between the Mississippi and Lake Michigan.

Conness called up the bill in relation to the Western Railroad Company. It allows the company to occupy for a depot, storehouse, etc., such portions of Yerba Buia or Government Island, in the Bay of San Francisco, as may be necessary. After some discussion it was laid aside.

At the expiration of the morning hour, and on the motion of Sherman, the bill supplementary to an act to provide a national currency, reserved by a pledge of United States bonds, and to provide for the circulation thereof, approved June 3d, 1864, was taken up. The question was on the amendment by the Finance Committee.

The first amendment was adopted, making the limitation restricting the liabilities of individuals, companies, etc., for money borrowed of the National Banking Association, applicable to deposits made by such Association with private bankers, brokers or banking associations not included under the national currency act.

The second amendment provides that within ninety days after notice of a note to be liquidated by the shareholders of the National Banking Association, it shall pay the amount of its outstanding notes into the United States Treasury, and take up its bonds; otherwise they are to be sold at public auction in New York, and the surplus to be paid to the officers. Associations already in liquidation under such circumstances are to pay it over in thirty days under the same penalty, and the notes are to be redeemed at the United States Treasury, and the Associations to be discharged from their liabilities.

It was amended, on the motion of Howard, by making the auction at the Stock Exchange, and adopted.

The third amendment provides for a compensation to Receivers of National Banking Associations of 3 per cent. on the first $100,000, 1 per cent. on larger sums not exceeding $500,000, and one half of 1 per cent. on sums over $500,000; the Collectors to be paid out of the receipts from the assets, one-half of the commissions to be withheld, at the discretion of the Comptroller, until the affairs of the bank are closed, and such receivers are to be considered Government agents, and having the right to bring suits in United States courts; the District Judge fixing the fees for such receivers.

Cameron moved to reduce the per centage named from three per cent. on $100,000 to two per cent; from one per cent. on sums under $500,000 to one-half of one per cent.; and from one-half of one per cent. on sums exceeding $500,000 to one-fourth of one per cent.

It was supported by Conkling, and opposed by Sherman, Cattell, Williams and Morton, and adopted by a vote of 23 to 19.

Ferry moved to amend by inserting after the provision authorizing the Receivers to bring suits, the words, "and may invest the assets of the bank, in their hands, in bonds of the United States, while the affairs of the bank are not in liquidation, which bonds shall be deposited with the Treasurer of the United States, subject to the order of the Comptroller of Currency, and the Receivers shall also make a report to the Comptroller of all their acts and proceedings, and the Comptroller shall be authorized to sell such bonds from time to time, in order to make the dividends and payments provided in the 15th section of the act to which this act is supplementary."

The amendment was agreed to, and the section, as amended, also agreed to.

On the last amendment, to increase the national currency circulation by the sum of $20,000,000, to be confined to the States and Territories having a circulation of less than $5 00 to each inhabitant, Wilson moved to amend by inserting the following—"the sum of $100,000,000," and in issuing the said circulating notes, the preference shall be given to the banking associations in the States and sections of the country not adequately supplied with banking facilities; but whenever the amount of United States notes and circulating notes of the National Banks combined shall be in excess of $650,000,000, the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and required to retire and cancel the United States notes to the extent of such excess until the whole amount of United States notes outstanding shall be reduced to $250,000,000; and that for the purpose of facilitating the resumption of specie payment, the interest received by each Banking Association on their issues or the bonds deposited with the Treasurer of the United States by such Banking Association, shall be held as a reserve fund, until said Banking Association shall redeem in coin the currency issued by it, and the said specie reserve fund shall be used for no other purpose than for the redemption of said currency.

Morrill of Vermont, opposed it, and moved to add a proviso that the Secretary of the Treasury shall be authorized to withdraw an equal amount of United States notes. A long discussion followed.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Trumbull's bill extending the time in which nonguilty of capital offenses against the United States may be punished, was passed.

Fowler introduced a bill directing the Treasurer of the United States to purchase grounds for the erection of a customhouse at Nashville.

Howard called up the bill relating to the contested election in Washington, and during the debate thereon, Bank's bill came up as the special order, and was postponed until Monday.

HOUSE.

Logan gave notice that he would, on next Monday, move to suspend the rules to offer a resolution authorizing the appointment of a committee to select a site for the capitol of the United States, on account of the disregard of law in the disloyal element, which was showing itself in Washington in its bitterness against the loyal people.

The House at 12:20 went into a Committee of the Whole and resumed the consideration of the Tax bill. The Section before the committee being that relating to banks and bankers. Section 113, as amended, imposes a tax of ½ of 1 per cent. each month on the average moneys of the United States; a tax of ¼ of 1 per cent. each month on the average amount of public moneys on deposit; a tax of ½ of 1 per cent. per month on the capital beyond the average amount invested in United States bonds; and a tax of 1½ per cent. on the average amount of circulation.

Section 114, which imposes a tax on National and State banks of 10 per cent. on their circulation, being read, Morrill moved to amend it by providing that this section shall not apply to banks that are in liquidation and have not issued notes for circulation for more than one year, which was agreed to.

Peters moved for an additional section imposing a tax of 2 per cent. on the gross receipts of Safe Deposit Companies. Agreed to.

Stewart moved to extend this tax to Life Insurance Companies. Agreed to.

Section 119, taxing Transportation Companies having been read, Twitchell moved to reduce the tax on the gross receipts from 2½ to 2 per cent. After some discussion the amendment was agreed to.

Coburn moved to amend by exempting Horse Railroad Companies in cities and towns when their gross receipts for the preceding year do not exceed their gross expenses.

Trumbull moved to exempt from the tax, companies whose gross annual receipts do not exceed $4000 instead of $2000. Agreed to.

Section 120, taxing express and telegraph companies, was then considered. On the motion of Schenck, the tax on the gross receipts of express companies was reduced to 2½ per cent.; the tax on the gross receipts of sleeping cars at 2½ per cent., and that of telegraph companies at 3 per cent.

The Committee then rose, and the House adjourned.

The On-Rushing Tide.

Independence, Mo., hitherto groaning under the iron heel of Radicalism, is disenthralled. On Saturday last the result of a municipal contest showed the city to be Democratic. The Sentinel, alive with enthusiasm, speaks of the result as follows:

Independence sends greeting to all Democratic cities, and reaches out her arms, washed clean of Radical stain. The Democracy of our city has won a glorious victory. All honor to the Americans, Germans and Irish, who voted for and worked for the white man's ticket. Bonfires are now burning on the streets, and we are writing by the illuminated windows in the Sentinel office.

BIRTH-DAY GIFTS FOR MY DAUGHTER.

BY ANNIE CHAMBERS KETCHUM.

Pearls for my pearl,—
White as the whiteness of her breast,
Pure as the thoughts in her heart at rest:—
Pearls for my pearl.

Flowers for my flower,—
Lilies, fresh culled where the water flows,
Roses to crown my one sole rose,—
Flowers for my flower.

Birds for my bird,—
To twitter, and list, with eye askant,
Her rivaling voice in song or chant,—
Birds for my bird.

God of the lone!
Left, in my life's fair morning-tide,
With but this child, I crouch beside
Thy Mercy's Throne,

And folding close
Her curly head on my broken heart,
Checking my sobs, lest I make her start
With my bitter woes,

To Thee I cry!—
Long is the way, and black and wide
Gathers the tempest;—Be our guide,
Thou Lord Most High!

Till from the whirl
Of earth, secure in Heaven's repose,
Angels bring roses for my rose,
Pearls for my pearl!

JUNE 9, 1868.

A Voice from the Noisome Pestilence.

For the Sunday Appeal.

The Angel of Death has for some months past hovered its dark wings over our city—the pestilence has breathed its fatal breath upon the face of many a familiar friend, and their bodies rest now in that beautiful "city of the dead," Elmwood. Their voices still linger where once their countenances smiled, and they speak to us in tones too solemn to pass unheeded. My friends, my relatives, let not death surprise you as it has overtaken me and snatched me from the walks of men. Prepare for the hour no less certain to you than to me, though it hath placed its seal upon my brow." It is a momentous question—that thought of transition by a way that we know not into another state of existence. None save the foolhardy or visionary can say they dread not the terror of initiation into the great unknown. Surely times like these visitations are sent, among other reasons, to bring us to study the problem of our present life, and to search for light upon that state of being which lies beyond the grave. While the idea of annihilation in modern times is nearly ignored, still, outside of revelation there are few satisfactory answers given to those who discard the promises and knowledge that Christ left with his followers. If they read and trust they have naught to fear; but how few the number, even of Christians, who realize an understanding of his victory over death and the grave.

The unfinished development of the mental faculties, and their ever grasping for something "they have not and cannot obtain," is one proof that here the life of mind is incorruptible, or else a wise Creator has mocked his creatures with torturing aspirations. The stretch of the moral sensibilities to attain to a proper and permanent code of action, is another proof that we are working onward to some stage a great way before us.

And as a future existence seems to await the noble aspiring, the perpetrator and enactor of crimes is unable to design or execute in proportion to his desire and will to sin; for the same reason there must be a stage of action upon which his powers for working evil may expand, and scope for their display. But evil or good brings its own reward to the actor. Our sensibilities to feel will be intensified, and the wicked will be miserable in proportion as the good are happy from their deeds, if, indeed, we live a life to come. This is what concerns you and I to settle, "whether if a man die shall he live again," where, and how. Is there not light somewhere that can extricate us from this mystery and suspense. Let us seek the aid of revelation, reason, and the testimony of those who, dying, left a parting word, and decide at once what we are and whither we are tending. Heed the kindly voice of the pestilence and delay not to await another fearful warning. When the dread devourer comes again it will be for you and I to go, and not our friends.

MEMPHIS APPEAL.

ALBERT PIKE & CO.

Vera Atque Honesta Dicere.

For President of the United States,

ANDREW JOHNSON,

OF TENNESSEE.

[Subject only to the decision of the National Democratic Conservative Convention.]

PLATFORM OF THE TENNESSEE DEMOCRACY.

1st. The Conservative men of Tennessee, putting aside all questions decided by the war, accept the title of 'Democrats,' and formally unite themselves with the Democratic party as it now exists.

2d. The question of the right of a State to secede from the Union has been decided by arms, and that decision should be accepted as final and conclusive.

3d. Nevertheless, while the Constitution makes the Federal Government supreme, it is so only with well defined limitations and restrictions, leaving the States large rights and powers over their domestic concerns, and making them co-equal in respect of such rights: and these rights have not been impaired by the result of the war, or the powers of the General Government aggrandized by it, to the endangerment of public liberty.

4th. The extinguishment of African Slavery is recognized as a fact, ratified by a binding Constitutional Amendment.

5th. The investiture of negroes with the right of suffrage, by the Congress of the United States, and the disfranchisement of white men, by the same authority, is a gross usurpation of power, and a policy unjust, unwise and oppressive, and tending to excite a war of races: the white men of America are entitled to superiority and supremacy in the administration of the Federal and State governments; and any measure intended to deprive them of it, or to divide or impair it, greatly endangers the perpetuity of free republican institutions.

6th. The faith of the nation is pledged to the payment of the National debt, according to the terms of the laws under which the bonds were issued, and not otherwise. The time of payment of the bonds ought not to be extended; the principal of the five-twenty bonds ought to be paid in currency, and the money granted to the National banks to be withdrawn.

7th. The Government bonds should be taxed in the hands of the bondholders, equally with other property.

8th. The doctrines and practices of the Radical party, which endeavours, by encroaching upon the powers of the Executive and Judicial branches of the Government, to absorb in the Legislative Department all powers, tend to the destruction of the Republican system of Government and the civil liberties of the people.

9th. Equal and exact justice to all men, of whatever State or persuasion, religious or political; peace, commerce and honest friendship with all nations; entangling alliances with none; the support of the State Governments in all their rights, as the most competent administration of our domestic concerns and the surest bulwark against anti-Republican tendencies; the preservation of the General Government in its whole constitutional vigor, as the sheet anchor of peace at home and safety abroad; a jealous care of the rights of election by the people and the supremacy of the civil over the military authority.

10th. Andrew Johnson the first choice of the Democracy of Tennessee; but their Delegates left free to unite in selecting another as the candidate for the Presidency.

THE FRUITS OF CONVENTIONS.

The 'deliberations' of the Democratic Convention at Nashville were, we are authoritatively assured, entirely harmonious. Laus Deo! Divided counsels assure defeat: "A house divided against itself cannot stand."

Unfortunately, the results do not seem to be quite so harmonious. There are mutterings of discontent all around us in the atmosphere; "pitchings in," in every direction, and a general prospect for a free fight,—over General Forrest, over this, and over that, until we feel inclined to cry, "A plague on both your houses."

Our amiable confrere, the Avalanche, after a free expression of its opinions of men and measures, says:

With this brief defense of General Forrest and reply to the unprovoked assault of Leftwich, we express the firm and unalterable determination to have no further controversy with our political friends.

But the Avalanche had previously spoken its mind in these rather plain and blunt words, which, as our acquaintance Dr. Leftwich, is not supposed to be an angel of meekness, may possibly defeat the determination of our neighbour "to have no further controversy with our political friends."

The Avalanche discourses thus:

Our valued "friend" Hon. John W. Leftwich, has been seized with a violent attack of that tingling, annoying and uneasy disease called "cacethes scribendi," and it seems to titilate him as much as a child with the hives, or a young lady with the measels, sweltering between two blankets during dog-daye. As a relief Dr. Leftwich rushes into print, and makes the column rules of the APPEAL a grater against which he rubs and rasps himself, as sleek, fat, well-behaved porkers sometimes do against an unfortunate rail protruding into their sty. We trust the friction, attrition or abrasion will afford Dr. Leftwich that kind of luxury which poor people, afflicted with the itch, are said to enjoy in scratching themselves.

Dr. Leftwich's two letters in the APPEAL yesterday has not impressed us with the belief that he bears any especial resemblance to the beast of the Apocalypse, either in head or horns. Indeed, we cannot see the object of either of these epistles or billet doux. In letter number one he arraigns the Ledger with all the gravity of an old field pedagogue exposing the pecadillos of a naughty urchin, when the correction could have been more justly, appropriately and effectually made by three lines to the editor, or three minutes' verbal conversation with Mr. Tyler, who would have made ample reparation for any injustice he may have done Dr. Leftwich's protege.

And again:

In letter number two Dr. Leftwich arraigns the Avalanche, and again he makes himself the peculiar champion of his friend Edmund Cooper. We have made no war with Dr. Leftwich. We have sought no controversy with him. We have regarded him as a friend, and we are certainly his. Our comments bad reference to Mr. Cooper, and we cannot account for the reason that prompts Dr. Leftwich to take sides between two friends, unless it be the suggestions of a vanity that he can fight a better battle for his protege than he can fight for himself. Mr. Leftwich says we have "coarsely" assailed his darling pet. We spoke of the dear creature in the plain, pointed, honest language which sincere men always utter. We leave rhetoric to Dr. Leftwich. We may not write with his chaste elegance, or possess his purity of style and flowery diction, but when he accuses us of "coarsely" assailing his little divinity, he is guilty of something still more objectionable—that of injustice and misrepresentation.

It is boldly admitted that the immoral use Edmund Cooper opposed the "sending of Gen. Forrest as a delegate to the New York Convention," and Dr. Leftwich modestly sustains him with the weight of his own potential name. Notwithstanding the course of Mr. Cooper has been indorsed by the Hon. John W. Leftwich, we still believe and reassert that the opposition made to Gen. Forrest was a personal insult to him, and an outrage upon the Confederate soldier, and particularly to the gallant heroes who belonged to his brave command. What has Gen. Forrest done that he should be ostracised, or a discrimination made against him?

And again:—

But turning from great things to little things—from giants to pigmies—we come down from Gen. Forrest to Mr. Cooper again. Dr. Leftwich says of his protege: "One word more in regard to Col Cooper. It was and is still the opinion of his friends, that he was made the President of the Convention to deprive Mr. Johnson of his greater influence if left an active participant in the body of the Convention; and nothing is more certain to our minds than that if he had been thus left untrammeled, the Fourth Congressional District would have made another to the five that cast their votes for the resolutions." Shrine of the mighty! On what meat doth this man feed that he should so suddenly turn to a Leviathan or a Goliah! It is an insult to the firmness, intelligence and integtily of the delegates of the Fourth District to suppose that they could be moved by the wave of Edmund Cooper's magic wand to give a vote contrary to that they did give, and which their judgment prompted. We did not fear that overwhelming and irresistible influence which Dr. Leftwich attributes to his new found colossus that bestrode the State Democratic Convention, and we voted to keep him on the floor! Mr. Cooper secured every vote of the committee on organization save our own. He was nominated by an East Tennessee District; was supported by every district in the State save the Eighth; was put forward by the friends of the President, and it is unjust and ungenerous in Dr. Leftwich to make accusations which have no foundation in fact, and does gross wrong to the delegates who never once thought of the intrigues attributed to them in the above imputation.

Other parties have rushed, and we suppose will continue to rush, into print, each with his version of the action of the Convention or his commentary, gloss or interpretation. The Hon. Edmund Cooper, we presume, will desire to be heard; and on the whole, we are inclined to think that some people ought to be "bound over to keep the peace" with the pen. "Oh Lord," an expounder of the Lord's Gospel of Peace once cried, while "wrestling with the Lord" in prayer, "we would not presume to dictate, but only suggest the propriety of having a revival of religion in this place." We think a revival of religion necessary in the Democratic party of Tennessee, and do not presume to dictate, but suggest the propriety of it. It is strange how the old party strata are upheaved and crop out, when everybody is crying aloud that the old party issues are all buried. Keep them alive! They are profitable. The country, the South especially, has been wonderfully benefited by them. Do not let it be forgotten that we were once either Democrats or Whigs, and each believed every man on the other side a rascal.

We take no side in the quarrel. But we do this. We have published a summary of the platform adopted at Nashville, for the information of our readers. We have said all that we have to say as to what we deem its short comings; and having done so, we replace it with our own, on which we stand, as we stood a year ago.

We do not mean to take any side in the controversy, in respect to the wisdom of selecting General Forrest to be a delegate to the New York Convention. What our opinions on the subject were, our readers, we presume, were able to gather, from what we hinted, rather than said, and from our own course in the matter.

We have a rather favourable opinion of our own capacity to serve the country, and should very much have liked to meet old associates, and antagonists too, in council in New York. We never did or authorized the doing, in war, of an act contrary to the most humane rules of civilized warfare. But, unfortunately, there is a general belief in the Northern States, originally produced by lies, and kept up by the repetition of the same lies and the impossibility of overtaking and crushing out a falsehood, that we authorized the scalping of men of our own race by barbarians.

Therefore we 'ostracize' ourself. We think, (we may be mistaken), that if we were a delegate to the Convention, that fact would be trumpeted every where in the North, and perhaps cost us votes of Conservative Republicans, that might have been secured if we had not had any part in the nomination of candidates.

For the same reason we shall not permit our name to be put to any petition, address, or statement of grievances. It is useless to undertake to ride down a prejudice wide-spread and general; and, in our own case, we know it is so, even among the members of the great Order of Freemasons to which we belong and which we have so faithfully served.

Mumford—The Wrong Man Murdered by Beast Butler.

The following statement is from Mrs. Dorsay's "Recollections of Henry Wm. Allen," Governor of Louisiana, during the late war:

It was known among us that Wm. B. Mumford was not guilty of this crime (?) of taking down the United States flag, which was done before the city surrendered, and not done by him. Gen. Butler's court of military commission found him guilty. It must have been on circumstantial, if any, evidence, because the flag was removed by Adolphus Harper, a young lad of sixteen, who was hurried out of the city by his alarmed friends immediately after the commission of the daring act, before Harper was aware of Mumford's capture. Harper was sent up the river near Natchez. Learning afterwards of Mumford's summary execution, young Harper, in an agony of distress, tried to get to New Orleans in order to surrender himself to the United States authorities, in a vain thought of expiation to the martyred Mumford. But his friends about Natchez prevented this mad boyish act—prompted by the lad's sense of honor—and at last succeeded in convincing him that it would be a useless sacrifice of another human life, which could be made valuable to the South. Harper then joined Bradford's scout's, and was killed in a skirmish, about ten miles from Natchez. He is buried in Fayette. Harper's friends say he was always "under a cloud" after Mumford's death. He was very handsome, and a very brave, reckless soldier.

Mrs. D. adds that she hesitated as to the one expediency of writing this fact of history, but cast expediency aside in the presence of truth.

At the Grant-Colfax ratification meeting in Albany, New York, Dr. Breckinridge made a partisan speech, in which he alluded to the city of New York as containing 50 000 Roman Catholic voters, whom he denounced as the cause of the Radical defeat; and he said the State must be redeemed, even if to do so New York had to be burned to the ground!

FOR the information of our own State delegation, and others at a distance who will be beginning to ask where the National Committee can be found, we are authorized to state that the Democratic National Executive Committee is now in permanent session in New York city, and will continue in session until the adjournment of the Nominating Convention. Their headquarters are in one of the Democratic newspaper offices in Park Row.

PHILADELPHIA.

PHILADELPHIA, June 14.—Timothy Heenan, who was shot a few days ago, died to-day. He was brother to John C. Heenan.

CHARLESTON.

CHARLESTON, June 14.—Election returns, now complete, from thirty-one districts in South Carolina indicate that the Radicals have carried fifteen, Democrats sixteen districts.

FLORIDA.

AUGUSTA, June 13.—The Tallahassee Floridian states that Harrison Reed, Governor elect, was sworn into office and delivered his inaugural yesterday, and that the Legislature had met but there was no quorum present.

The military authorities insisted that reorganization should not take place till Congress passed the omnibus bill.

Mr. Reed was sworn in by Judge Baynton, of the United States District Court. His inaugural was brief and not particularly important.

The Legislature stands as follows: Senate—Radicals, 18; Democrats, 8; House—Radicals, 37; Democrats, 15.

A Federal soldier stabbed a negro today, but there are hopes of his recovery.

SAN FRANCISCO.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 14.—Mazatlan reports of a private nature say there is a scheme on foot for the secession of the Northern Mexican States. Foreigners give a gloomy description of the country.

A dispatch from Oregon reports the majority for Smith, Democratic candidate for Congress, at between 1200 and 1300. The official count in the counties next to Idaho give unexpectedly large Democratic majorities. The total vote of the State is nearly 22,000, being the largest ever polled. The Senate stands twelve Democrats and ten Republicans; the Assembly twenty-eight Democrats and nineteen Republicans.

WEATHER AND RIVERS.

ST. LOUIS, June 14.—River falling slowly, and upper streams on the decline.

Arrived—Marble City, from Memphis.

EVANSVILLE, June 14.—River fallen one foot.

Arrived—Alaska.

CINCINNATI, June 14.—River rising with 18 feet in the channel.

Arrived—Minneola, from Memphis.

LOUISVILLE, June 14.—River rising with 5½ feet in the canal.

Departed—Richmond, for New Orleans; Empire, Cincinnati.

CAIRO, June 14.—River fell ten inches.

Arrived—John Kilgour.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—Gen. McMahon, of New York, is here. His nomination as Minister to Paraguay is not acted on by the Senate, on account of the war in which that country is engaged, and consequent difficulty in reaching it. He is a candidate for the appointment as Minister to Mexico, and if nominated, would probably be confirmed.

The opinion continues to prevail among members of Congress that the tax bill will not pass, owing to want of time for both Houses to act upon the measure. It is thought, however, that several of the sections with regard to whisky and tobacco may be embodied in a separate bill and become a law.

Some time ago William James, Collector of Internal Revenue for Richmond, Va., was suspended from office, but the Senate has not regarded the reasons assigned sufficient. James is restored to office, and Gen. Mulford, late Commissioner for the exchange of prisoners, who held the position meantime, retires.

FOREIGN.

BERLIN, June 14.—A statement has been made, and is now authoritatively confirmed, that Bismarck will retire from office for a period of three months, solely for the restoration of his health, which has been greatly impaired.

LONDON, June 14.—The Sultan new cabinet is maturing a plan to permit persons of foreign birth residing in Turkey, to hold property, which right is to be guaranteed by treaties with foreign powers.

It is now generally understood that the ministry will make an appeal to the country on the questions at issue between them and the House of Commons.

The following is the programme which the Government has decided upon: Parliament is to be dissolved in October; writs will then be issued for elections, which will take place during the month of November, and on the ninth of December a meeting of the new Parliament will take place.

It is announced that ex-Gov. Eyre, of Jamaica, will contest the seat of John Stuart Mill, member of Parliament from Westminster, London, in the coming election.

THE ELECTORAL VOTE.

How it is Likely to be Cast in the Coming Presidential Election.

From the Hartford Times.]

The following is the electoral vote to which each State is entitled in the choice of President and Vice President:

STATES REPRESENTED.

California	5	Nebraska	3
Connecticut	6	Nevada	3
Delaware	3	New Hampshire	5
Illinois	16	New Jersey	7
Indiana	13	New York	33
Iowa	8	Ohio	21
Kansas	3	Oregon	3
Kentucky	11	Pennsylvania	26
Maine	7	Rhode Island	4
Maryland	7	Tennessee	10
Michigan	8	Vermont	5
Minnesota	4	West Virginia	5
Massachusetts	12	Wisconsin	8
Missouri	11
States now represented			247

STATES NOT REPRESENTED.

Alabama	8	Mississippi	7
Arkansas	5	North Carolina	9
Florida	3	South Carolina	6
Georgia	9	Texas	8
Louisiana	7	Virginia	10
States not represented			70
			247
Total votes			317
Necessary to a choice			159

It is too early to make very accurate estimates of the result; but presuming that an acceptable candidate will be nominated by the Democrats and Conservatives at New York on the 4th of July next, we may with a good degree of confidence rely upon the following results:

DEMOCRATS.

California	5	Missouri	11
Connecticut	6	New Hampshire	5
Delaware	3	New Jersey	7
Illinois	16	New York	33
Indiana	13	Ohio	21
Kentucky	11	Oregon	3
Maryland	7	Pennsylvania	26
Michigan	8
			175

RADICALS.

Iowa	8	Nevada	3
Kansas	3	Rhode Island	4
Maine	7	Tennessee	10
Minnesota	4	Vermont	5
Massachusetts	12	Wisconsin	8
Nebraska	3	West Virginia	5
			72

Should the proscribed States be permitted to vote by the usurpers, the result will be about as follows, unless the bayonets do it all:

DEMOCRATIC.		RADICAL.
Alabama	8	Florida	3
Arkansas	5	Louisiana	7
Georgia	9	Mississippi	7
Texas	6	North Carolina	9
Virginia	10	South Carolina	6
	38		31
	175		72
Total	213	Total	104

Democratic majority, 109 electoral votes.

This estimate is based upon the idea that the Democrats will make no mistake in their Fourth of July Convention. The people are tired of Radical rule, and want a change. They want peace and Union and a restoration of good feeling.

The nomination of Gen. Grant rouses no enthusiasm. His name did the Radicals no good in the Connecticut election, though they even printed his portrait and his name on their ballots, and presented him as their candidate in all their conventions. It has done them no good in Oregon—probably no harm.

There are States entitled to over 100 electoral votes, who are tired of Radical rule, and are ready to act with those who are determined to restore the Union upon the principles of the Constitution. They are:

Illinois	16	New Hampshire	5
Indiana	13	Ohio	21
Michigan	8	Pennsylvania	26
Missouri	11	Wisconsin	8
Total			108

We do not doubt that the Democratic Convention will act with wisdom and discretion, and that the friends of the Union will triumph in November.

THE WEATHER WAS, yesterday, intensely warm, the thermometer standing, at one place, at 94° Fahrenheit, in the shade; at another 96°. This is getting rather warm.

TO PHYSICIANS.—Members of the Profession, in good standing, in the city, are requested to meet at the office of Dr. W. E. Rogers, No. 40 Madison street, to day at 12 o'clock, for the purpose of taking steps toward paying the proper marks of respect to the late Dr. J. J. Hooks. A full attendance is earnestly requested.

FIRE YESTERDAY MORNING.—The alarm of fire yesterday morning, about three o'clock, was caused by the burning of the grocery of Mr. Dugan, on the Raleigh road, near the Fair grounds. The distance was too great for the engines to go, and the establishment was totally consumed. We learn that there was no insurance, and the loss will probably be $2000.

OFF FOR THE WARS.—The usual quiet of Sunday evening was broken into yesterday, our streets vibrating for awhile to the tap of the "soul-stirring drum" and the "shrill whistle" of the "earpiercing fife"—sounds unwanted in our streets since the blasts of war somewhat ceased to blow. On rushing out to find the cause, we learned that it was a detachment of soldiers leaving by the Memphis and Charleston railroad to some point to us unknown. We suppose it is a military beaumontade—which is the French for a raid on the Kuklux.

REMARKABLE CURE FOR ACHING TEETH.—It is a pleasure to be enabled to inform the public that, from positive evidence of a gentleman of the composition department of this office, any one can have teeth extracted without the slightest pain, at the dental office of Dr. Hurd, corner of Third and Jefferson streets. The Doctor administers "laughing gas," which is not at all unpleasant, but merely quiets the nerves, and laughs the aching member out without pain.

POLICE ITEMS.

—Dull, duller, dullest! Memphis is under a spell, charmed, bewitched. What can the matter be? Can it be that the numerous church picnics have had a harmonizing effect on the "inside barbarians?" or have the "eloquent temperance lectures" converted the lovers of the ardent? or is it the hard times that has had that effect? Or better still, can it be that all the roughs have, like the Kilkenny cats, used one another up, until there are now no more to kill? Whatever be the cause, certain it is, that a change has come over the spirit of their dreams, and for nearly a week past, Memphis has enjoyed undisturbed tranquility—a fact as refreshing as it is remarkable.

—There were but three arrests reported up to nine o'clock last night at Adams street station, and five at Causey.

—The case of Sergeant Brown, of the First District police, who was fined before the Municipal Court $5 and costs, ($22 50 in all,) on the complaint of a scalawag of the carpet-bag stripe, whom he had arrested, will be appealed by Col. Beaumont to the Supreme Court. The scalawag, whose name is Walker, was drunk and obstreperous, and the Sergeant arrested him rather roughly—hence the complaint. He also tried to get the Sergeant indicted before the Grand Jury of the Circuit Court and failed. The Sergeant has been two years on the police, and this is the first time he has ever been complained of.

—Five cases of stock stealing were reported at headquarters yesterday and day before.

—Some rogue around town has a mighty sweet tooth. A day or two ago we spoke of two hives of bees and honey being stolen from somewhere on Court street. On Saturday night two more were stolen, from P. M. Patterson, 317 Jefferson street. They were traced to Washington street.

—A darkey with the euphonious name of Granville Jones, was arrested last night and locked up in Adams station, on charge of "snatching" a pocket book. Granville stoutly denied his identity at first, declaring that he was named Sam, but on being pressed, admitted that his name was Granville. On searching him the Captain took off him a hymn book, bible and a self-cocking Derringer. On this latter coming to light, the charge of carrying concealed weapons was added to the first, and Granville was locked up.

LOST.—A small black-and-tan slut Pup. Had on a red morocco collar, and answers to name of Jule. A liberal reward will be paid for the return of same to No. 450 Main street, Waldran Block, room No. 7.

ATTEMPTED MURDER.

A Dastardly Assassin Fires Through a Window at a Sleeping Woman.

About 2 o'clock yesterday morning, some dastardly ruffian fired a bullet through the window of the bed room occupied by the wife, niece and child of M. Malony, a fireman, belonging to No. 4 engine company.

Mrs. Malony, the niece and child were in bed at the time and were aroused by the shot and the crash of the bullet. On arising and striking a light she found that the missile, either a rifle or a very large pistol ball had passed along within two inches of the sleepers, and buried itself in the door of the wardrobe standing near the head of the bed, showing that the would-be murderer knew very closely where his intended victims were in the habit of lying.

We are informed that this is the second time that a murderous attempt has been made upon the same parties, and Mr. Malony has not the remotest idea who it is that bears him and his family so deadly a malice. The matter should be closely investigated, and if the scoundrel is caught he should be treated to a "long rope and short shrift."

Capt. DeHaven' Address at the Chamber of Commerce.

To-day at 12 o'clock, m., the merchants, bankers, steamboat and railroad men, and all who are interested in the welfare of Memphis, her future growth and prosperity, are earnestly requested to meet at the Chamber of Commerce to hear addresses from Capt. DeHaven and other gentlemen in regard to the great project of the Mississippi Navigation Company.

In order that all who go thither may go with some general idea of the subject to be brought before them we give a synopsis of Capt. DeHaven's remarks on Saturday evening before the Chamber of Commerce:

It would be but little use, he said, then and there to go into details, so he would only speak generally, reserving a full description of his plans, drawings and models until Monday, when he would build them the steamboat, if they wished, from the keleon to the top of the chimney, and explain the object, bearings and commercial combinations of the Mississippi River Navigation Company in the same exhaustive manner. Now he would simply show some of the main points of his plans, and their commercial and financial bearings upon the commerce of the Northwest, on its road to the sea, via Memphis.

The plans of our steamers are not new; they are simply novel combinations of old and well known advantages. Low-pressure engines have been known about as long as high-pressure, and used elsewhere, but they have never come into general use, or become generally known to river engineers of the Southwestern waters. Low-pressure steam is to high-pressure as 14 is to 150—in other words, 212° Fahrenheit will give 14 7 pounds to the square inch, and 350° will give 132 pounds. This difference is made up in the application.

Let us glance next at the construction of the hull. The advantages that we secure by my plans are patent to every one to whom they have been shown. By a combination of mechanical forces, without addition to the weight or bulk of material used—(indeed the weight is an immense deal less than in the old method), we make a hull eleven times stronger. I have exhibited my plans to engineers, to steamboat and ship builders in Norfolk, Brooklyn, Pittsburg, Chicago and elsewhere over the United States, and received the fullest commendations and approval—all from the shipwright who plied the adze to the most scientific constructor. Many of my friends, the steamboatmen, some of whom are present, at first were skeptical, but an examination never failed to convince them; not one now has an objection to offer. The only question they then asked was, "would it pay?" and this he proved to them it would do, and for fourteen different prominent features and reasons.

We can show to a practical steamboatman that a boat constructed on these principles can run and carry grain, corn, etc, and make it pay, at less than half the present rates of freight; and all steamboatmen present know that there are few steamboats that make it pay to carry even at the present rates. We can run the boats with one half the fuel or one-half the expense, at the same or a greater rate of speed, and with absolute safety. In addition our freight is handled by the same machinery that it takes to run the boat.

* * *

The speaker then went on to speak of the natural advantages of Memphis, and how the proposed combinations and arrangements would be made—all of which will be discussed to-day, and of which a full report will be given.

IMBIBERS take notice, that on and after to-day, the EMPIRE SALOON, No. 18 Jefferson street, reduces its prices for all drinks to 15 cents per drink. We pledge ourselves to furnish our customers with the same liquor as heretofore.

EXHIBITION.—The pupils of the Misses Bowers and Prof. Seyfert will give a dramatic and musical exhibition on Friday, the 19th inst., at the Memphis Club Hall. The dramatic pieces are so arranged as to combine the sentimental and the comic. The well known fairy tale of "Cinderilla" will be represented; scenes from the "School for Scandal," in appropriate costume; a "Coronation by the Muses," in which there will be a fairy dance. Recitations, songs and instrumental pieces will complete this recherche entertainment.

COMMENCEMENT SERMON.—The Commencement Sermon at the State Female College was delivered yesterday morning by Rev. Dr. Green, of Nashville, from 1st Peter, 1-3. The discourse was rare and entertaining, and altogether appropriate. The spacious Chapel was well filled with an appreciative congregation, who listened to the reverend gentleman with marked attention. The other Commencement exercises of the College, commencing Tuesday and continuing until Thursday, promise to be of a very interesting character.

"MERCHANTS."—Ice cold Ale and Porter, on draught, 10 cents; Ice cold "Half and Half," 10 cents; straight and mixed drinks, 15 cents. Try it, at the "Merchants'," northeast corner Main and Madison streets.

FREE LUNCH.—Vetter Dreissigacker, of the Monroe Exchange, on Monroe street, No. 35, announces that a splendid FREE LUNCH is served up by him every morning at ten o'clock. He has the very best of wines and liquors in his bar, and polite and attentive bar-keepers. His lager beer, which cannot be excelled, is only five cents a glass, except at lunch times, when it is ten. Come one, come all, and give him a call.

WE will sell our whole stock at a sacrifice, to make room for a fall stock.

TERRIBLE AFFRAY.

A Man Fearfully Cut With an Ice-Pick.

About 9 o'clock last night an affray occurred on Poplar street opposite the Market, between two Germans, named Ackerman and Plumer. The origin of the quarrel is not known, but Plumer, after having some words with Ackerman, left him, and shortly afterwards returned, armed with an ice-pick, and attacked Ackerman, first beating him over the head with the but end, and then "jabbing" the sharp end into it; making six frightful gashes. Ackerman shouted "murder" lustily, and Plumer fled, and up to writing had not been arrested. Ackerman, although very severely injured, is not thought to be mortally wounded, for which fact he is alone indebted to the thickness of his skull.

CITY COUNCIL.

Veto Message of Mayor Leftwich

Public School Tax.

At a called meeting of the Board of Mayor and Aldermen, convened at the Council Chamber Saturday, Judge J. T. Swayne in the chair, the following veto message was received from his honor, Mayor Leftwich:

MAYOR'S OFFICE, June 13, 1868.

To the Honorable Board of Aldermen:

The ordinance passed at your last meeting increasing the rate of taxation for school purposes from twenty to thirty cents in the one hundred dollars is open to such grave objections that I am compelled by a sense of duty to return it, with the following reasons why I cannot approve it:

Weighty arguments might be used against the justice and propriety of taxing one man to educate the children of another, when the latter is equally or probably more able to pay for it himself; but this we pass, and only present the insurmountable facts that array themselves against the measure.

The depreciation of our railroad stocks and other assets, as a result of the war; the occupation by the Federal forces for six years, without rent, of the navy yard property, which heretofore yielded a handsome income; and the government of the city during the war by military appointees, who were not interested in our welfare, are among the causes which have given us a large debt and poor credit; and to reduce the former and improve the latter is the first and highest duty we owe those whom we represent.

Your City Tax Collector is daily reminded and convinced of the utter inability of many heretofore prompt taxpayers to pay the amount already assessed against them without the forced sale of property at ruinous rates. Your Treasurer is as often humiliated at his inability for want of funds to pay just debts of long standing to needy creditors, while all who have left any remnant of human sympathy are hourly mortified at the actual and immediate want that has to be turned away unrelieved, to say nothing of the important sanitary measures and many needed improvements that have to be dispensed with for want of money.

To relieve us partially from these pressing embarrassments you authorized the issuance of thirty years six per cent. bonds and asked the voters of the city to ratify your action. We met with fierce opposition, the main argument against the measure being that the issuance of these bonds would cause you to disregard the policy of retrenchment that had been inaugurated with such beneficial results. This argument was successfully met by pointing to the statement of the Finance Committee already made, and which had set apart twenty cents on the one hundred dollars for school purposes. Negotiations have been made with this allowance, to the extent of our wants for that purpose, so that it would seem that we have no right to go beyond it, but are in honor bound not to do so. Other important negotiations are now pending which are liable to be retarded, if not defeated, by this early attempt to go beyond our pledges by the increase of an already oppressive taxation.

It might, with propriety, be said, "that corporations, like individuals, when in straightened circumstances, should seek relief by curtailing expenses," and this has necessarily been done in all the departments of our city government to a greater extent than we recommend to the public schools; indeed, from the following features it will be seen that liberal provision, under the circumstances, has been made for them:

The estimated requirements for school purposes for the next scholastic year is $48,100. The allowance already made is, in round numbers, $62,800, or $16,700 above the requirements; but this additional allowance is asked for to relieve an existing indebtedness which, from facts already presented, would be, at this time, an unjust imposition on the taxpayers.

With this surplus above the estimated requirements of the next year, the good sense for which the Board of Visitors is proverbial will readily determine to what extent the due indebtedness shall be reduced, or the requirements for the next year be diminished.

With the deep interest I feel in the education of the children of the land, I can only regret that poverty has imposed on me the unpleasant duty of returning your ordinance without my approval.

Yours, very respectfully, etc.,
JOHN W. LEFTWICH, Mayor.

Alderman Powers moved to receive the message. Carried.

Alderman Renner moved to concur.

After considerable discussion, participated in by Alderman Johnson, Ruffin, Renner, McDavitt, Moffatt and Mageveny, a vote was taken to concur in the veto, with the result of 9 ayes to 8 noes, and the motion was adopted.

A petition was received from Dr. Erskine and several other physicians relative to the establishment of a free dispensary for the benefit of the poor. Referred to the Committee on Finance.

Alderman Powers resigned his position as Chairman of the Improvement Committee, and Alderman O'Donnell was appointed to fill the vacancy.

Alderman Johnson resigned his position as Chairman of the Hospital Committee, and Alderman Mageveny was appointed in his place.

A petition was received from a number of citizens, asking to be allowed the use of the rooms in the third story of the old Medical college Exchange building, for a Bethel school.

Alderman Johnson supported the petition, and said they also intended to establish a soup kitchen in connection therewith.

Alderman O'Donnell was afraid of any such move, as the children might be taught a religion to which their parents might object.

Alderman Ruffin supported the petition, and did not think that parents who failed to support their children had any right to object to their being taught some religion—Catholic or Protestant could do no harm.

The Chair supported the petition, as did Alderman Wright, and the prayer of the petitioners was granted.

A petition was received from R. C. Brinkley, Esq., asking permission to place a steam engine and boiler under the basement of the new hotel in the Brinkley block. Referred to the City Engineer.

The meeting then adjourned.

WHITE'S STATION AGRICULTURAL AND STOCK ASSOCIATION.—Under this name an Agricultural Association was organized at White's Station, on the Memphis and Charleston Railroad, yesterday at 2 o'clock p.m., by the adoption of by-laws, when the following officers were elected: J. H. Goodlett, President; Byrd Hill, First Vice President; R. M. Mason, Second Vice President; N. B. Haynes, Secretary; R. D. Goodwyn, Correspondng Secretary; Wm. Horn, Treasurer; A. Q. Gates, Librarian.

Executive Committee: G. C. Holmes, Robt. McKenna, Dr. N. C. Perkins, John McBrooks, S. H. Jones.

The Association is composed of our most intelligent, experienced and public spirited citizens, and will hold monthly meetings for the discussion of topics relating to agricultural interests. The officers are gentlemen of will, energy and experience, and the Executive Committee will press the work forward with such determination that we expect to see similar clubs organized throughout our section of country. Our farmers could perform no duty more advantageous to all classes of our people than the organization of such associations and working, through them, with zeal and intelligence to improve the tillage of our lands and the cultivation of our gardens and farms to the highest point of excellence:

WHITE'S STATION, June 13, 1868.

At the meeting of the Agricultural Club of this District, this evening, we were honored with the presence of Col. Leon Trousdale, of that sterling paper the Memphis APPEAL, who, being called to address us on the question of agriculture and the labor system, came forward, and in a few well timed remarks spoke of the urgent necessity of a move for the organization of clubs by the industrial portion of the community; mentioned how dependent the city is on the country for all the necessaries of life, thus we of the country were the great fountain from which the world drew its life-blood; that we possessed all the natural advantages that we did prior to the war, which were equal if not superior to any country in the world, that all we needed was the systemizing of the labor of the country, exchanging our views with each other. He stated that he regarded this as one of the most important moves that he had seen since the war was over; was glad to see it, and hoped the move would be seconded by other portions of the country.

We gave three cheers for Col. Trousdale and the APPEAL, and he will always have the privileges of this community when he will favor us with a call.

RIVER MATTERS.

WEATHER AND RIVERS.

The heat of the weather becomes more intense daily. It has reached a point very uncomfortable to those who are exposed to the rays of the sun. The sky is clear, and we are consoled with the knowledge that tho' we swelter in the heat, the growing crops are enjoying the brightness of the sun and exerting themselves to reach, as near as possible, to its warm embrace. The river at this point swells slowly, and will be again falling within a day or two. All the upper rivers are declining, as will be seen by the telegraphic dispatches in another column. White river is falling, with five feet to Jacksonport. The Arkansas has thirty-five inches to the Rock and twenty-six inches to Fort Smith.

MISCELLANEOUS.

There was very little doing on the landing yesterday. The packets in port as well as the wharfboats were nearly deserted. Wharfboat proprietors, nearly all of whom are possessors of one or more 2:40 crabs, were out at Raleigh, or some other equally attractive watering (or whiskying) place. Capt. Fred. Montano, proprietor of the well known Linde park and an old boatman, has made his grounds very attractive. They are visited daily by large numbers of citizens, and liberally dotted with river men who go there to enjoy the shade of lofty oaks and slake their thirst with cool spring water and such.

By a call in our local columns it will be seen that all steamboatmen in port are requested to attend a meeting at 12 m., which will be held at the Chamber of Commerce.

STEAMER FORT SMITH SUNK.—The steamer Fort Smith, of the Memphis and Arkansas Packet Company, sunk on Wednesday last at Webber's Falls, between Fort Smith and Fort Gibson. She was on her way to the latter place with a load of miscellaneous merchandise. She sunk in shoal water, and can be raised, but her cargo is said to be badly damaged.

A river captain and a business man of this city had a set-to in an office on Front street on Saturday evening. The captain proved himself master of the situation, coming out first best.

The Gleaner came in with a light trip. It is said that the Celeste will lay up on her arrival at this port, and that the Ozark will take her place.

The Belle Lee passed up last night with a big trip. She had 130 cabin passengers and 550 head of stock. Capt. McGill says that he will probably make one more trip to Louisville and then lay up at this port.

Mr. John V. Savage, of Little Rock, but formerly of this city, where he has many friends, arrived last night on the Gleaner. He reports the growing corn crop better than ever known before, but that times are dull about the Rock.

Texas beeves are going North from all directions. They seek transportation at almost every landing below the mouth of Red river, and at ports above. The Tempest, which passed up yesterday, brought 75 head from DeVall's Bluff, which arrived there via Little Rock and the railroad. The Commercial, due at an early hour this morning, also had 200 head engaged at the same point. The cattle trade between the prairies of Texas and those of Illinois and other Northern States has assumed very large proportions.

The gay Mollie Hambleton, whereof Tom Bowman is skipper, leaves to-morrow, as usual, for the St. Francis river. Paine, Clark and Shell are her pursers.

The Darling, Capt. Kates, with the popular Mr Power in the office, leaves to-morrow for Cairo, Louisville and Cincinnati.

The U. S. mail packet, W. A. Caldwell, Capt. Rube Haynes, backs out today for Little Rock and way points, going through to Fort Smith, water permitting. She has good passenger accommodations, and in her office will be found Jack Chambers and Ed. Mitchell, both the cleverest of gentlemen.

The fine little packet Lida Norvell leaves to-day at 5 p.m., for Vicksburg and all way points on the Yazoo. She has been to Cincinnati and thoroughly repaired, and makes a very hand

Our Latest Improved

NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTE.

GROVESTEEN & CO.,

499 Broadway, N. Y.,

THESE instruments, after the most flattering testimonials from the first Pianists in the country, who, at our solicitation, have tested them in the severest manner possible, have been pronounced THE FINEST SQUARE PIANO-FORTE MADE IN THE WORLD.

It has always been our policy, during the thirty-six years that we have manufactured Pianos, to the thousand of which are now in use in the United States and Europe, to give the finest instrument at the lowest cost.. Our superior facilities enable us to offer them from one to three hundred dollars less than other First Class Houses.

The tone of these instruments are remarkable for their peculiar Sweetness and Great Brilliancy, never losing their quality when forced to their utmost capacity. The lower register retaining its positiveness, does not destroy the middle and upper registers by mingling with them in disagreeable confusion, the refined beauty of tone being equally delightful to the unpracticed and to the most cultivated ear.

There are also now style of Piano, finished in the most superb manner, with four full round corners front and back, heavily carved legs and Lyre Serpentine Base (rarely ever seen), and each instrument is fully warranted for five years. sep5 d 1w1y

THE NATIONAL

TELEGRAPH

COMPANY.

A new enterprise, to be known as the National Telegraph Company, has been organized with valuable franchises conferred by a recent act of Congress for the purpose of establishing Trunk Lines of Telegraphs on all the principal railroads and mail routes in the United States. The stock is to be issued upon the same principle as that of the Merchant's Union Express Company, which recently commenced operations. The design is to interest the entire business community in the enterprise. This is done, not so much to dispose of the stock as it is to secure the business of the country through which the lines pass.

The Capital is to be

$10,000,000,

In 100,000 Shares, of the par value of

$100 PER SHARE,

But the actual amount to be paid in cash is

$35 Per Share,

And this amount is to be paid as follows: One per cent. of the par at the time of subscribing, and no more, until the entire capital has been subscribed, and then on calls to be made by the Board of Directors; instalments not to exceed five per cent. per month. When thirty-five per cent. of the par value of the shares has been paid, certificates of stock will be issued This will give the company a paid up

CASH CAPITAL OF $3,500,000,

Which will be sufficient to duplicate lines to all or nearly all the paying points reached by the present monopoly.

The present Telegraph Companies of the country have been consolidated into one huge monopoly, and are now earning over SIX MILLIONS OF DOLLARS per year, or over one hundred per cent. on the actual cost of their lines, their present capital having been watered over ONE THOUSAND per cent.

THE NATIONAL TELEGRAPH COMPANY have a recognition from the United States Government of the importance of their enterprise, with a grant of the most valuable franchises ever conferred upon a telegraph company. No competing line has ever had the right now granted by Congress to this company to construct and operate lines over every RAILROAD and MAIL ROUTE in the United States. The position of this company differs from that of any company ever before organized. The question of the RIGHT OF WAY IS FOREVER SETTLED.

The stockholders of this company cannot be sold out or TRANSFERRED to any other company. The act of Congress under which this company has been organized, prohibits any transfer of the franchises granted.

CALLS---HOW TO BE MADE.

One per cent. of the Stock will be required on subscribing, and subsequent calls, not to exceed five per cent. per month, will be made by the Board of Directors, from time to time, as may be necessary, to supply funds to construct and equip the lines; but no calls will be made after the one per cent is paid, until the ENTIRE CAPITAL STOCK shall have been subscribed.

ACTUAL CAPITAL REQUIRED

The Company confidently believe that thirty-five per cent. of the Capital Stock will construct and fully equip

25,000 MILES OF WIRE,

Which will connect all the commercial centers and important places in the United States This opinion rests upon the most reliable estimates and responsible offers to construct and equip the lines.

The National Telegraph Company is organized under the Laws of the State of New York and franchises conferred by an act of Congress, approved July 24, 1866.

MEMPHIS APPEAL

CONDENSED DECISIONS OF THE SUPREME COURT.

Brownsville, June Term, 1868.

BY H. CLAY KING, ESQ.

Venable vs. Snoddy.

This cause was decided at a former day of the term. It was a bill in Chancery to set aside the satisfaction of executions from a Justice of the Peace on the ground that the payment to the officer who satisfied the executions, was in Confederate money. In the answer of the defendants, they inserted a demurrer to the jurisdiction of the Court.

Per curiam.—Smith, Judge.—The demurrer to the jurisdiction being inserted in the answer, is a nullity; and the defendants having answered, submit to the jurisdiction thereby. And, such being the case, it is not now decided whether Chancery has, properly, jurisdiction of such a case or not.

No. 20—Skipwith vs. Johnson.

Facts: Johnson recovered judgment in forcible entry and detainer before a Justice of the Peace. Skipwith prosecuted certiorari to the Circuit Court, executing bond with security for one year's rent under the Code. The case not being tried within the year, the Court required Skipwith to execute a new bond and security for another year's rent, which not being done, the Court dismissed the certiorari.

Held: That the Code does not require, in such a case, any other bond than the one to secure one year's rent, and to require an additional and different one is error, for which a reversal will be had.

No. 21.—Williams vs. Wickersham.

Facts: Williams had judgment and execution against Wickersham. The Constable in whose hands the fi. fa. was placed, endorsed on the same one day after the return day, "satisfied," and placed the same among the papers. Application was made to the Justice, (who was the Constable who had the execution, having been since elected to the office), for another fi. fa. on the judgment, on the ground that the payment was in Confederate money, and that the entry of satisfaction on the fi. fa. was a nullity. And, this application being refused, this mandamus was sought against the Justice.

Held: 1. That under the facts of this case, the entry of satisfaction is not held as a nullity for any purpose. The act may have been done while the execution was in life, although the endorsement was made afterwards.

2. The remedy in this case is not by mandamus—the remedy involving something more than a mere ministerial act.

No. 22.—Williams vs. Inman, Galt & Co.

The plaintiff sued the defendants on this paper: "Received of Inman, Galt & Co. $407, to be remitted to them at Louisville, Ky." There was judgment final by default.

Held: That this paper does not, under the Code, bear interest of itself, and a jury is necessary to assess the damages.

No. 23.—Gates & Wood vs. Holding.

This Court will not supersede an interlocutory order of a Chancellor dissolving an injunction, where the complainant's right to relief is doubtful.

No. 24.—Berlin vs. Overton.

On appeal, or appeal in the nature of a writ of error, the record must show that it was prayed for, and granted by the Court. A recital in the appeal bond to that effect will not cure the defect. For such defect the cause must be stricken from the docket; but a writ of error may be applied for.

No. 25.—Crow vs. Cunningham.

Facts: Crow sued Cunningham before a Justice of the Peace on a note, and obtained judgment for $429 80, from which Cunningham appealed to the Circuit Court. In the Circuit Court, Cunningham gave notice that he would insist, by way of set off, on the value of four bales of cotton delivered to Crow, for which he claimed Crow was liable. The case was submitted to a jury, and Cunningham obtained a verdict for $289 79, upon which judgment was rendered against Crow, in favor of Cunningham, after extinguishing the demand of Crow; from which judgment Crow has appealed to this Court.

Held: 1. That in cases of appeals from a Justice of the Peace to the Circuit Court, the jurisdiction of the Circuit Court is limited to the jurisdiction of the Justice.

2. The Justice not having jurisdiction in this case to render a judgment in favor of the defendant, the Circuit Court had none.

3. The fact that the defence of set-off had not been relied on before the Justice, can make no difference.

4. By the Code, 4161, the defendant, before judgment, might have remitted the excess over the Justice's jurisdiction, and taken a valid judgment within his jurisdiction.

5. But having failed to do, the remittitur cannot be entered here. It is a matter of jurisdiction, and the doctrine of remittitur as allowed here stands on a different footing.

6 Under Code, 4160, if the sum found by the Justice as a set-off exceeds his jurisdiction, the defendant may remit the excess, and take judgment for the balance; so, by section 4162, if the defendant's set-off after satisfying the plaintiff's debt, exceed the Justice's jurisdiction, the defendant may enter on the Justice's docket a satisfaction of so much of his claim as the amount of the plaintiff's demand ascertained by the Justice, and tender the plaintiff a receipt for the amount thus set off, in which case judgment shall be rendered in favor of the defendant for costs. But the Justice has no power to render a judgment for an amount beyond his jurisdiction, and this Court cannot create the same by allowing a remittitur here for the excess. Dickson vs Caruthers, 9 Yer. 30.

State Docket of the Supreme Court.

The following are the causes on the State docket of the Supreme Court at Brownsville, from the Circuit Courts of Shelby, Fayette, Carroll and Henry counties, and from the Criminal Court of Memphis. This docket will be called peremptorily on Monday, the 15th inst., and will be disposed of on the first call, in the order as the causes are stated below:

1. Holloway vs. The State.
2. Thompson vs. The State.
3. Nokes vs. The State.
4. Wickham vs. The State.
5. Anderson vs. The State.
6. Morton vs. The State.
7. Wynne vs. The State.
8. Myers vs. The State.
9. Thompson vs. The State.
10. Gaines vs. The State.
11. Galloway vs. The State.
12. Bly vs. The State.
13. The State vs. Conner.

A WASHINGTON dispatch to the Philadelphia Inquirer asserts that certain parties in Washington, acting in concert with Mr. Thornton, the British Minister, are endeavoring to engineer a bill through Congress to reduce the duty on bituminous coal from Nova Scotia to a merely nominal rate, so that Maryland and Pennsylvania coal cannot compete with it, and which, of course, would give to Nova Scotia a monopoly, or nearly so, of the sea coast trade.

Well, the party in the ascendant in Congress, should understand their duty. Having carried out the will of their British masters, to the destruction of the best interests of their country, the prostration of business, and the eternal blotting out of all hope of commercial prosperity, and greatly endangering the existence of the Government itself, it should not baulk at so trivial a step as breaking down and rendering of no avail the natural resources of a province or two!

—The Emperor Napoleon, though apparently in tolerable health, is said to be really far from well, being aware that he is afflicted with Bright's disease, or albuminaria, and that a cold or a fever might at any moment remove him.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL,
MEMPHIS, June 13, 1868.

How long will the present quiet state of affairs in our money market continue? is now the leading question in financial circles. Everybody is hopeful in reference to the coming fall business, but will the grain crop which comes in earlier than cotton be of such magnitude as to cause any noticeable change in our affairs? Money is easy everywhere as well as in Memphis, and capitalists all over the country find it difficult to get employment for their spare cash. At the same time so much distrust has pervaded the minds of our people that many who otherwise would be free lenders, are shy even of good paper, and prefer to let their money lie ingloriously idle than let it out of their possession.

In Exchange there is but little doing Rates are steady. Buying on New York at par to ¼c premium, and on New Orleans at ¼c discount. Selling on the latter place at par; on New York at ¼c premium, and on St. Louis, Louisville, Nashville and Cincinnati at ¼c premium.

Gold was steady in New York to-day, opening and closing at 140¾. There were no sales of note in this market. Dealers buy at 138¾ to 139¾, and sell at 140¾.

City Scrip is quiet. Dealers offer 75c, and sell at 78 to 80¾. The demand is very fair, and purchasers could be found for large amounts at the offering rate.

County Warrants are dull with no speculative demand. Brokers buy at 60c, and sell at 63 to 65c, as to amount.

Police Scrip is also dull. A few brokers are off the market. We quote at 80c, buying; selling at 85c.

There is official authority for stating that the internal revenue for the fiscal year ending June 30th will be less than one hundred and ninety million dollars, which is thirty-five millions less than Rollins estimated the amount in his report of December, and nineteen millions less than McCulloch's estimate. Whisky frauds are the main causes.

By exchange with England, France gets for eighty dollars in silks, cottons which would otherwise cost her ninety-six dollars—a handsome gain of twenty per cent; England gets for cottons costing her one hundred dollars, silks which would otherwise have cost her one hundred and twenty dollars—another handsome gain of twenty per cent.

Two years ago, Smith Eastman, of New York, operated in pork, flour, beef, etc., running the price up to an outrageous figure. He made money, and poor folks suffered consequently. Last week he died in the Hartford Lunatic Asylum.

Fast freight cars have recently been transported from New Orleans to New York, a distance of 1825 miles, in six days' running time. The trip was accomplished at a rate of speed never before attained, but which, with the increased facilities for freighting, and the improvements of the roads, it is expected will soon be greatly increased.

Laramie City, the farthest western city on the Pacific Railroad, is only a week or two old, yet 1000 lots have been sold, and there are six hundred houses and stores in course of erection. Laramie has a fine water power, and the Union Pacific Railroad Company has decided to locate car shops and railroad works there. We see it stated that $55,000 worth of elegant furniture has been ordered by the company in New York, to furnish the Railroad Club House at Laramie, for the directors and commissioners, who will spend the summer there with their families.

Cotton was quiet in Liverpool at the opening to-day; Uplands 10½ to 11d, Orleans 11¼ to 11¾d. At the close the market was heavy; Uplands sfloat and on spot 10¾d, Orleans 11d. Sales 5000 bales. In New York at the opening the market was dull and prices unchanged, and at noon the market was irregular; Low Middlings 27c, Middlings 29c, and at the close was weak, with moderate demand; Middlings 28¾c. No sales given. Week's sales 6000 bales; receipts 3720; for export 445; stock 65,000; week's receipts at all ports in the United States, 3800 bales. Our market was quiet with no inquiry. All desirable lists are out of market, and prices are irregular, so much so that we subjoin no quotations.
